

Participatory Programme at Sidho-Kanho-Birsha University, Purulia (25.09.2019)

The Sidho-Kanho-Birsha University, Purulia celebrated the 150th Birth Anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi by organizing a day-long programme in collaboration with the Sangrahalaya at their University Campus on September 25, 2019. The programme was started by the inauguration of a Mobile Exhibition on Gandhian Thought of Constructive Programmes for Social Development, which was set up by the Sangrahalaya and it was inaugurated by Professor Dipak Kumar Kar, Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor of Sidho- Kanho- Birsha University. After visiting the exhibitions the Inaugural function was started in the seminar room of the University. The Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor, the Registrar, the Dean of Faculty of Arts of the University and the Director-Secretary of the Sangrahalaya were present at the inaugural function and all of them delivered their lectures about the significance of the programme. The Director-Secretary of the Sangrahalaya conducted an Audio-Visual Spot Quiz, based on the life & activities of Mahatma Gandhi for the students of the University. At the end of the programme the winners of the quiz programme were awarded the mementoes in memory of the Mahatma by the Sangrahalaya.

